Non-Discrimination/Anti-Harassment Policy

It is the policy of Midwest that all employees work in an environment free from unlawful discrimination and harassment. Sexual discrimination and harassment is illegal and is specifically discussed in this policy to illustrate key concepts related to this and other forms of improper behavior. It is also illegal to discriminate against or harass another individual because of their age, race, color, religion, national origin, disability or other characteristic protected by applicable law.

Illegal discrimination and harassment includes any conduct connected with a protected characteristic that has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment. The term sexual harassment also encompasses any unwelcome sexual advances or request for sexual favors or any conduct of a sexual nature when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual.

Sexual harassment can include direct or indirect sexual advances which are not welcomed by the victim, requests for sexual activity or favors, verbal or physical contact of a sexual nature, visual matter such as derogatory posters, cartoons, drawings, or obscene or demeaning matter such as photographs, magazines and calendars, as well as any other verbal or physical actions which interfere with an employee's work performance or which create an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

If an employee believes that they or any other individuals are being subjected to any form of illegal discrimination or harassment, this information must promptly be reported to the location's Plant Manager or the Human Resources representative (Rick Galbreath at Performance Growth Partners Inc. – 309.664.7741 or hr@midwest-fiber.com).

Midwest will not retaliate against any employee who, in good faith, makes a complaint of illegal discrimination or harassment.
