This policy and practices relates to all phases of employment including, but not limited to, recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, transfer, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, training, use of facilities and participation in all company sponsored employee activities and programs.

All personnel of Foster & Foster are familiar with this statement of policy, the philosophy behind it and their responsibility to apply these principles in good faith for meaningful progress in the utilization of minorities and women.

Foster & Foster believes that you should be afforded the opportunity to work in an environment free of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is a form of misconduct that undermines the employment relationship. No employee, either male or female, should be subjected verbally or physically to unsolicited and unwelcomed sexual overtures or conduct.

Sexual harassment refers to behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that debilitates morale and, therefore, interferes with work effectiveness.

Behavior that amounts to sexual harassment may result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

DEFINITION

Foster & Foster has adopted, and its policy is based on, the definition of sexual harassment set forth by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). The EEOC defines sexual harassment as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of your employment
- submission to or rejection of such conduct by you is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting you
- such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with your work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

EMPLOYER'S RESPONSIBILITY

Foster & Foster wants you to have a work environment free of sexual harassment by management personnel, by your coworkers and by others with whom you must interact in the course of your work as a Foster & Foster employee. Sexual harassment is specifically prohibited as unlawful and as a violation of Foster & Foster's policy. Foster & Foster is responsible for preventing sexual harassment in the workplace, for taking immediate corrective action to stop sexual harassment in the workplace, and for promptly investigating any allegation of work-related sexual harassment.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you experience or witness sexual harassment in the workplace, report it immediately to Bradley R. Heinrichs. You may also report harassment to any other member of Foster & Foster's management or ownership. All allegations of sexual harassment will be quickly investigated. To the extent possible, your confidentiality and that of any witnesses and the alleged harasser will be protected against unnecessary disclosure. When the investigation is completed, you will be informed of the outcome of that investigation.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

Foster & Foster will permit no employment-based retaliation against anyone who brings a complaint of sexual harassment or who speaks as a witness in the investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment.

WRITTEN POLICY

Sexual harassment is inconsistent with the Firm's objective to promote a cooperative work environment, and is contrary to the Firm's policy of equal employment and promotion opportunity without regard to age, gender, sexual orientation, citizenship, race, color, religion, creed, national origin, disability, and veteran or marital status. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, is illegal under Federal and State laws, and will not be tolerated within the Firm's setting.
