4. PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLIC INPUT

a. Public Input

James Kilgore spoke in support of ARPA funds being allocated to the First Followers program H3. Stressed the importance of APRA funds being utilized to address issues of community violence. Described the H3 (Harm, Healing, and Hope) program offered by First Followers and the community partners involved. Charles Davidson shared the programs at First Followers that they hope to receive additional funding and support for.

b. Fire Budget Presentation

Presented by Fire Chief Demond Dade. Mayor Marlin acknowledged the first responders present in the audience. Chief Dade shared a PowerPoint presentation for the FY 2023 budget. Key points in this year's budget are the return of the Fire Marshal Position, transfer to a new records management system software because of the expiration of the current software, and inclusion of training program allocations to remain in compliance with state designations. Chief Dade shared the responsibilities of the position of Fire Marshal and explained the importance of maintaining resources and training for the Fire Department. Questions and discussion ensued.

c. Police Budget Presentation

Presented by Interim Police Chief Rich Surles. Mayor Marlin acknowledged the members of the Police Department present in the audience. Chief Surles shared a PowerPoint presentation for the FY 2023 Budget. Key points in this year's budget are the creation of two full-time staff positions and one part-time evidence custodian, and funds to provide for the ABLE training for the entire police department. The two full time positions would be a digital forensics specialist and an intelligence analyst. Chief Surles explained the roles and responsibilities of these positions. He then explained the Active Bystandership for Law Enforcement (ABLE) training. Questions and discussion ensued.

d. ARPA Standard Allowance Budget Presentation

Presented by Will Kolschowsky a management analyst from the Executive Department. Mayor Marlin acknowledged the City staff members present from AFSCME and the Public Works Department in the audience. Council previously voted to authorize the allocation of a portion ($2.5 million) of the ARPA funds for revenue replacement to be expended for essential City services. This presentation is a proposal of how to spend these funds. Kolschowsky shared a PowerPoint presentation with the proposed expenditure break down. Key points are the two full time staff positions for Police, the ABLE training for Police, the Munis Vendor Self Service software upgrade, COVID related expenses/PPE, Market at the Square revenue replacement, Local Motor Fuel Tax revenue replacement, a contribution to the Champaign County African American Heritage Trail, and an employee retention/incentive pay allocation. Kolschowsky explained the reasoning behind each proposed expenditure. He then explained a possible future allocation for a special census in 2023. Questions and discussion ensued.

e. HOME ARP – CD (Moved from Staff Report)

Presented by Sheila Dodd the Interim Community Development Director and J D McClanahan from Champaign County Regional Plan Commission (CCRPC). This presentation is an overview of where the City is at in the Urbana HOME Consortium American Rescue Plan (ARP) allocation process. Dodd explained the steps required in order to qualify to receive funding. J D McClanahan from CCRPC shared a timeline to show what future actions are to be taken and estimated dates of completion. McClanahan provided working definitions of the qualified populations these funds are supposed to benefit. He then shared details of the contributions to the project by community partners and reviewed the public feedback received. Questions and discussion ensued.

5. COUNCIL INPUT AND COMMUNICATIONS

CM Kolisetty shared appreciation for budget presentations and the City staff receiving recognition for their work during the pandemic. CM Hursey shared appreciation for the consideration of Council strategic goals in the budget process and also for the staff showing up in support of their departmental budget presentations. Mayor Marlin reminded that the next meeting will be on Tuesday, June 21, 2022 following the City's observance of the Juneteenth Holiday on Monday, June 20, 2022. Marlin announced that RPC will be presenting an update on the ARPA allocation process at that meeting. Marlin shared that there will be a Juneteenth proclamation and flag raising at the City Building on Friday, June 17, 2022 at noon and other Juneteenth celebrations on Saturday, June 18, 2022.
