Shredding Event

with Senator Scott Bennett

Saturday, August 19
9:00 a.m. - Noon*

Consumer fraud and identity theft are becoming an epidemic in our communities. To raise awareness and to promote prevention, The Urbana Free Library and State Senator Scott Bennett are offering a paper shredding event for Urbana-Champaign residents. Shred your outdated documents, such as bank statements or pay stubs.

Have you stockpiled old batteries or empty ink-jet cartridges? You can bring these and the other items listed below for our Mini Recycling fair, going on at the same time as the shredding.

NEW LOCATION

City of Urbana Parking Lot 21
Northeast corner of Vine and Green, north of the City Building and across the street from the Market at the Square.
Check the Library's e-calendar for a link to a detailed map.

SHREDDING LIMIT

Two boxes per person
Residential shredding only (not for businesses).
Please plan to take empty boxes home with you.

MINI RECYCLING FAIR

Recycle your used:
Ink-jet printer cartridges
Single use batteries--regular, lithium, or rechargeable
Cell phones
Eyeglasses
Metal keys

Presented by Senator Scott Bennett and The Urbana Free Library
