EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Our policies, practices and benefits are continuously reviewed for updating and we expect to change them from time to time. Therefore, you should always refer to the written changes for the most current version.

Ethical Standards/Conflict of Interest

WCP Solar Services, LLC d.b.a WCP Solar has an excellent reputation for conducting its business activities with integrity, fairness and in accordance with the highest ethical standards. As an employee you are obligated to uphold that reputation in every business activity. If you are ever in doubt whether an activity meets our ethical standards or compromises the company's reputation, please discuss it with your manager or supervisor. Employees are encouraged to share their concerns, seek information and provide suggestions. They are also encouraged to resolve problems/issues through their immediate management and as appropriate, consult with any member of management toward those ends.

Open Door Policy

Managers and supervisors are expected to listen to employee concerns, to encourage their suggestions and to seek resolution to their problems and/or issues.

Suggestions

If you have any suggestions or ideas that you feel would benefit Brown/Woods and Associates, we would encourage you to tell us about them. We are always looking for suggestions that improve methods, procedures and working conditions, reduce costs or errors and benefit the Company and its employees. Persons who make suggestions that are used to substantially benefit the Company and its employees may, at the sole discretion of Brown/Woods and Associates, be considered for a one-time appreciation award.

POLICIES

Equal Employment Opportunity

WCP Solar Services, LLC d.b.a WCP Solar maintains a strong policy of equal employment opportunity for all employees and applicants for employment. We hire, train, promote, compensate and dismiss employees without regard for race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital or veteran status, disability, citizenship as well as other classifications protected by applicable state or local laws. Our equal employment opportunity philosophy applies to all aspects of employment within the company. This includes recruiting, hiring, training, transfer, promotion, job benefits, pay, dismissal, educational assistance and social and recreational activities.

Harassment

It is illegal to harass others on the basis of their gender, sexual orientation, age, race, color, national origin, religion, marital or veteran status, citizenship, disability and other personal characteristics. Harassment includes making derogatory remarks about such characteristics, making "jokes" about ethnic or other groups, and other verbal, physical and visual behavior.

Sexual harassment is also prohibited. Propositions, repeated requests for dates, dirty jokes, sexually provocative pictures and other verbal, physical and visual harassment are prohibited. The harassment of an employee by another employee will lead to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination in cases of gross misconduct.

Any employee who feels harassed has the right to file a charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and, in some states, with a state agency. Before doing so, the employee should speak first with his or her supervisor. If the supervisor is not appropriate, the employee should speak to the next level supervisor, the office manager, shareholder or anyone else in management, in an attempt to reach resolution. It is the manager's duty to listen to such complaints and to refer them to the appropriate authority.
