SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND OTHER FORMS OF HARASSMENT

The company believes that every one of its employees has the right to be free from all forms of illegal harassment or intimidation such as harassment and intimidation based on race, color, religion, physical or mental handicaps, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, age or veterans status.

OVERVIEW

Sexual harassment is behavior of a sexual nature made by a person who knows, or reasonably should know, that such behavior is unwanted or offensive. Sexual harassment can involve males or females being harassed by members of either sex.

Sexual harassment includes sexually oriented conduct that is sufficiently pervasive or severe to interfere with an employee's job performance or create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. While sexual harassment encompasses a wide range of conduct, some examples may include (but are not limited to):

- Promising, directly or indirectly, an employee a reward, if the employee complies with a sexually oriented request; or denying, directly or indirectly, an employee an employment-related opportunity, if the employee refuses to comply with a sexually oriented request;
- Threatening, directly or indirectly, to retaliate against an employee, if the employee refuses to comply with a sexually oriented request.
- Engaging in physical contact or touching another employee in a way that is unwelcome.
- Making sexually suggestive verbal remarks or engaging in conversation that is sexually suggestive or may be deemed to be inappropriate.
- Displaying, storing, or transmitting pornographic or sexually oriented materials.
- Making sexual or romantic advances toward an employee and persisting despite the employee's rejection of the advances.
- Creating or contributing to an offensive environment, including the use of vulgar language, displaying sexually suggestive images or telling sexual stories or jokes.

Sexual harassment can be physical and/or psychological in nature. A series of incidents can constitute sexual harassment even if one of the incidents considered on its own may not be harassing. Employees are prohibited from harassing other employees whether or not the incidents of harassment occur on company premises and whether or not the incidents occur during working hours.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

If an employee believes that he/she has been subject to or witnessed sexual harassment or any other forms of harassment or intimidation described above they should:

- Inform the other party that their conduct is un-welcome and request it to stop.
- Report the incident to their Manager or an Officer of the Company.
- Document the incident in writing and provide specific details as to what occurred, when and where it occurred and who was involved, including any witnesses.
- Provide written documentation to the HR Director.

Sexual Harassment and Other Forms Of Harassment

All incidents of sexual harassment or inappropriate sexual conduct must be reported regardless of their seriousness. Publicizing information about alleged harassment without following the reporting procedures may be considered evidence of a vexatious intent on the part of the accuser. If an employee is made aware of another employee being harassed, this should also be reported immediately.

All reports of sexual harassment will be thoroughly investigated. Investigations will be conducted confidentially. During the course of an investigation information will be revealed strictly on a need-to-know basis. No retaliatory action will be taken against any employee who uses or participates in this complaint procedure.

Employees who violate this policy are subject to corrective action up to and including immediate termination.
