2019 Asian American Pacific Islander Heritage Month Asiafest Celebration Urbana Arts Grant Final Report

Asiafest 2019 was a huge success and we couldn't have done it without the help of our community collaborators and the City of Urbana. With the Urbana Arts Grant, we were able to bridge the campus and greater community together through art and culture. Students, families, and members from the community came to celebrate Asian Pacific Islander Desi American Heritage Month with activities, food, music, and performances. The grant helped pay for promotion within the community through Chambana Moms, honorariums for community members helping with the event, Urbana parking meters for food trucks, and equipment rental from Herriott's tents and the University.

This year, in addition to our student organizations, we had many community collaborators participate and help with the event. Hunger Force Mobile Kitchen, a Filipino food truck, served Filipino cuisine for attendees and we also had Great News Radio, a local community organization serve various Chinese desserts and food. Additionally, we had activities from the local Sri Lankan community, two community members from Oumni, a local moms group focused on South Asian arts helping with our henna activity and Lei Shanbhag, local artist and Zumba instructor lead a bollywood Zumba activity. For performances, Richelle Liu, a community member, sang two Filipino songs and we also had a demonstration from Leaders for Life, a local martial arts school. Like in past years, we also had the Champaign-Urbana Chinese Folkdance Club, the Good Hope Drum team, and the Chinese American Association of Central Illinois performed a variety of beautiful traditional Chinese dances.

The estimated number of attendees for Asiafest was around 1,000 people which we were able to accommodate both inside and outside of the Asian American Cultural Center with tents, tables, and chairs. Staff and students spent over 700 hours planning and executing our annual event with a total of 30 organizations participating through performances, food fundraisers, and activities. We are so grateful to be able to have this event annually thanks to our community partners and the Urbana Arts Grant.
