License Denial:

Any applicant denied a vehicle for hire driver's license based on reasons listed in subsection (a)(4) of Section 26-28 in Chapter 26 of the Vehicle for Hire Code of Ordinances shall have a right to appeal the denial decision. The applicant shall file an appeal in writing to the finance director or his/her designee no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of the denial notification letter. The appeal hearing will be held no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the filing of the appeal request. The issuing authority's human relations commission will act as the hearing body. The purpose of the appeal process is to offer the applicant an opportunity to show that, in spite of the disqualifying conviction, he/she would not present a public safety risk. Hearing procedures and rules will be established by the human relations commission and will be provided to those using the appeal process.
